A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 6, 2010 has been entered.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soukup (GB 2116823) or Evers et al (US 4041186). Soukup discloses the addition of a mercapto-alkanone to coffee beverages (see entire document).

Evers et al disclose the addition of mercapto-alkanones to foodstuffs (see entire document, especially claims 1 and 2).

The claims appear to differ as to the recitation of specific amounts and the recitation of increasing organoleptic properties.

Soukup and Evers et al teach the use of mercapto-alkanones. The increase in organoleptic properties would be no more than obvious to the prior art as the mercapto-alkanones are used. Once the art has recognized the use of mercapto-alkanones in foods and beverages, the use and manipulation of amounts and other mercapto-alkanones would be no more than obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art. In the absence of a showing to the contrary, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made to use and manipulate other mercapto-alkanones in foods and beverages because the use of mercapto-alkanones is conventional in the food and beverage art.
